NORLEFORD FARMER KILLED BY PLANE
LETHBRIDGE PILOT FAILS TO SEE J. G. PARKER STEP FROM CROWD TO SEE SHIP—FATAL ACCIDENT AT PICNIC NEAR ROCKY COULEE ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON—SUMMONS JURY VIEWS BODY AND ADJOURNS TILL MONDAY

Joseph G. Parker, farmer, six miles east of Norleford, was killed Friday afternoon, being struck by an airplane at the U. F. A. picnic near Rocky Coulee, northeast of Macleod. The plane was landing, and Mr. Parker stepped out from the crowd evidently to get a better look at the plane, and the pilot, Ernest Boffa of Lethbridge, did not see him. Dr. Lyster, coroner of Claresholm, was summoned, who empaneled a jury and made preliminary enquiries and with Dr. Cohen of Granum, viewed the body, adjourning the inquest till Monday at Granum at 2 p. m. The body was removed to the farm at Norleford.

The deceased was a widower about 60 years of age and was well known in Macleod, having lived for a number of years here. He came from England over 29 years ago. He afterwards bought the farm at Norleford and has been one of the successful farmers in that part of southern Alberta. Corp. R. Vise, A. P. P., Macleod, is looking after the investigation.

Dr. Lyster, coroner, held the adjourned inquest on the death of Joseph G. Parker who was accidentally killed by a aeroplane at a U. F. A. picnic at the farm of Charles Hart, Rocky Coulee, northeast of Macleod, on Friday, July 4th.

The inquest was conducted by Corp. R. Vise, A. P. P., Macleod, and Inspector Scott, of Lethbridge, was also present. The jury were, F. Still, foreman, F. Kellicut, S. G. Stewart, A. M. Fraser, J. Reynolds and H. Ridery.

The first witness called was Ernest Boffa, Lethbridge, pilot and owner of the aeroplane. In his evidence he stated that he had made 5 or 6 flights before the accident, carrying two passengers each time, and that on his last landing he did not see anyone in the way, but felt a slight jar on landing, and later he found he had struck the deceased. He immediately brought Dr. Cohen from Granum in his plane, but Mr. Parker had expired before the doctor arrived. Dr. Cohen, in his evidence stated that death was from concussion of the brain and a fractured skull. The following witnesses were also called: J. H. Howard, Chas. Hart, A. Lucia, S. Pruitt, J. E. Fierce, and William Parker, son of the deceased, and their evidence was all very similar, no conflicting evidence being produced. The verdict of the jury was: "That Joseph Graham Parker came to his death by being struck by an aeroplane at 5.45 p. m. July 4th at the farm of Charles Hart, Rocky Coulee, operated by Ernest Boffa." A rider was added to the verdict as follows: "We recommend that pilots flying at public gatherings should have a responsible man on the landing field to oversee the safety of the public, and

Mr. Matheson thanked the audience for coming out to hear Mr. Nolan and himself, and spoke first of the confidence which Mr. Bennett, the Leader, was inspiring throughout the country, and how his speeches were causing dismay among the followers of the present government. Mr. Matheson spoke of the Dunning budget, and how a large portion of it had been taken from the policies advertised by the Conservative party. He then went on to criticize the record of Mr. Coote, the Progressive member, and candidate in this election. He said that Mr. Coote had opposed the Dunning budget, and the Conservatives had also opposed it because it did not go far enough in protection. He said that if Mr. Coote was returned he would be helpless as the U. F. A. and Progressive members combined could not form a Government. The U. F. A. was all right for a Provincial Government, and could make a success of it in the Province, but they were helpless at Ottawa. He criticized Mr. Coote for taking five years to find out that the dairy industry of the country was being ruined by importation of dairy products. Mr. Matheson also touched on unemployment and said that it was only the representatives of the people in a special session that could deal properly with that matter. He also spoke of adequate protection that should be extended to benefit all classes of the people and not one class only. He closed by asking his hearers to vote for him on July 28th, and so support Mr. R. B. Bennett. The meeting closed with the National anthem.

J. D. MATHESON, K. C. CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE FOR MACLEOD FEDERAL CONSTITUENCY, AND H. G. NOLAN, BARRISTER, CALGARY, ADDRESS GRANUM AUDIENCE ON ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN

Higher tariffs and more protection for the industries of Canada, and more particularly the farming industry, was the key-note of the speeches of J. D. Matheson, K. C., the Conservative candidate, for the Macleod Federal Riding, and H. G. Nolan, Barrister, of Calgary, at the first meeting of the campaign at Granum on Monday night, in support of Mr. Matheson and Mr. R. B. Bennett the leader of the Conservative party.

There was a fairly good crowd gathered when J. B. Allison, who was chairman, called the meeting to order.

Mr. Nolan was the first speaker and in opening said they had met to discuss the vital questions of the campaign. Speaking first on agriculture, he said that new wealth was created by the advancement of agriculture. To the young men of this country agriculture was an honorable profession, and the advantages of studying agriculture today in schools and colleges was a great inducement to young men to stay on the farms. The speaker went on to criticize the lack of protection for agricultural products in Canada compared with other countries, instancing France, Italy and Germany with their high tariff against Canadian wheat. France had dumped 15 million bushels of wheat on the English market, which effected the price in Liverpool, Chicago and Winnipeg. U. S. A. had also a high tariff against Canadian wheat.

The Canadian live stock market, in the worst shape that it has been in for many years, was the U. S. A. tariff was against the Canadian cattle being shipped into that country, the duty having been raised from 19% to over 100%. The efforts of the conservative party (if returned to power) will be to protect the Canadian cattle and find a market that will be profitable for Canadian cattlemen. Mr. Nolan then took up the question of New Zealand butter being dumped on the Canadian market, and how it had ruined the Canadian dairy business, giving instances of Canada having shipped to England in 1921 18 million lbs. of butter, and only 8 thousand lbs. in 1929. He said that there is a market in England, if prices are right, for far more butter than Canada can produce at the present time. He then went on to criticize the Dunning budget, and ridiculed the effect of the countervailing duties of the budget, stating that very few articles which were imported by Canada would be effected by these duties, as Canada did not import these articles. Mr. Nolan spoke at length on unemployment, stating that although it was world-wide, that in Canada it could be averted by protecting the industries and giving the people work. He said that if the Conservative party were returned to power, would call a special session at once to deal with the unemployment question. In closing he urged his hearers to vote for Mr. Matheson.

Mr. Matheson thanked the audience for coming out to hear Mr. Nolan and himself, and spoke first of the confidence which Mr. Bennett, the Leader, was inspiring throughout the country, and how his speeches were causing dismay among the followers of the present government. FEDERAL LIBERAL CONVENTION DECIDES NO CANDIDATE IN MACLEOD CONSTITUENCY

No Liberal candidate was nominated at the Liberal convention held in Macleod on Wednesday afternoon.

H. Bossenberry, M. L. A., Pincher Creek, president of the Macleod Federal Liberal Association presided at the convention, and A. M. Densmore, Lundbreck was secretary. There were about 50 Liberals present, every section of the constituency being well represented.

A resolution committee was appointed consisting of J. W. McDonald, K. C., Macleod; F. O. McKenna, K. C., Pincher Creek; and J. M. Glendinning, Nanton; who brought in the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. "That we affirm our sincere confidence in the Government of the Rt. Hon. McKenzie King."
2. "That we approve of and congratulate the Government on the presentation to the House of Commons for its approval of the Dunning Budget in principle and detail."
3. "That we approve the attitude of Premier King towards unemployment problem—namely, that it is primarily a Municipal problem, but when referred by the Municipalities to the Provincial authorities, it should then be referred by the Provincial authorities to the Dominion Government and that the Dominion Government should, when the Municipalities

NEWEST GAYNOR-FARRELL, BIG MOVIE-TONE SUCCESS — "HIGH SOCIETY BLUES" GIVES THESE CHARMING SCREEN LOVERS ANOTHER BRILLIANT VEHICLE; DAVID BUTLER DID FINE DIRECTORIAL WORK — THURS.—FRI.—SAT.

Another sensational triumph was scored by the most popular pair of screen sweethearts, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, with their latest Fox Movietone musical romance, "High Society Blues."

There is no more charming couple in pictures than the winsome Miss Gaynor and the handsome and virile Farrell, and when they are given a proper vehicle, such as "High Society Blues," they present a superlative entertainment that wins instant appeal.

Even greater than the personal triumph they scored in "Sunny Side Up" was the reception accorded these young players by last night's capacity audience.

Both stars again sing, Miss Gaynor in her appealing voice which charms as no other voice we know of and Farrell in his crooning baritone. Both show a distinct advancement, musically, over "Sunny Side Up," ample proof that this production is great entertainment.

Five song numbers are sung by the stars, of which at least "Just Like A Story Book," "I'm in the Market for You," and "Eleanor" seem certain of national popularity. "Just Like A Story Book" has the same poignant quality which made "I'm a Dreamer, Aret We All" in "Sunny Side Up."

Miss Gaynor and Farrell, mostly strum their own accompaniments on ukeleles, both playing unusually well.

The supporting cast, including William Collier, Sr., Joyce Compton, Hedda Hopper, Louise Fazenda and Lucien Littlefield, all contribute excellent performances.

"WISE GIRLS" PROVES BIG COMEDY SUCCESS — NUGENTS BRING FAMOUS PLAY, "KEMPEY" TO SCREEN WITH GREAT CAST AND ALL OF ITS LAUGH-PRODUCING SCENES — MONDAY—TUESDAY—WEDNESDAY

"Wise Girls," a tremendously amusing small-town talking picture comedy, moves into the Empress Theatre Monday, and if anyone misses it, they will be passing up one of the funniest plays of the season.

It's a jolly entertainment that has enough honest sentiment and homely atmosphere to make a good background for the laughter. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, the producers, have done themselves proud.

Marrying off excess daughters has been the problem of worried fathers for so many, many centuries, that it was quite to be expected that some one would make it the center of a very funny domestic comedy.

Simple and very human, "Wise Girls" is told in such fundamental terms that it will be understood and enjoyed by every one who sees it. It was my impression that poor old harried "Pa Bence" had the sympathy of every man and woman in last night's audience. You could appreciate the old man's fear that the cost of marrying his daughters would make him poor before this goal could be reached.

and the Provincial Government are unable to cope satisfactorily with the situation, give material aid in the form of a loan, by calling a general conference of interested parties with a view to immediate action, rather than wait for the calling of a session of Parliament with its necessary expense and delay."

4. "That we express our disapproval of the use by Conservative candidates of the name 'Liberal-Conservative' as an attempt to suggest some sort of temporary or permanent alliance between the Liberals and Conservatives, and we assert that no such ground exists for the suggestion of any kind of alliance between the old line parties."

5. "That we offer our sincere sympathy to Senator D. E. Riley and his family in their recent sad bereavement."

The last resolution was passed by a standing vote.

The resolution not to put a candidate in the field was very fully discussed; quite a number were in favor of nominating a candidate, and the feeling seemed to be that had the convention been called a month earlier a candidate would have been placed in the field.

The present executive of the Association was re-elected, and it was suggested to the executive that a convention should be held from three to six months before the next election.

The convention closed by singing the National Anthem.

EIGHTY-SIX C. G. I. T. GIRLS IN CAMP

The South Alberta C. G. I. T. summer camp, was established on July 3rd, at the headwaters of the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation, west of Macleod on the Old Man River. The location is ideal for camp life, splendid swimming facilities with perfect safety, under proper supervision, good camp site and athletic grounds, plenty of fuel and excellent drinking water from a well close by, to all of which the girls have been given a hearty welcome by the irrigation authorities.

There are 86 girls registered, with a staff of 10, being under the direction of Miss Capsay, of Drumheller, while Mrs. (Rev.) Taylor of First United Church, Lethbridge, is the trained nurse in charge of the camp.

The communities from which the girls are drawn, are Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Blairmore, Coaldale, Taber, Magrath, Raymond, Norleford and Parkland. Supplies are sent from Macleod and Lethbridge, with generous assistance from citizens of both towns in making the camp safe and comfortable.

The Tuxis boys of the Macleod United Church went out and tested the depth of water in the proposed swimming places, so that with reasonable care on the part of the staff and the girls there should be no danger so far as the swimming is concerned.

INDIA'S FUTURE

When Kipling made his famous remark that East is East and West is West with the interesting conclusion that they would never shake hands or smoke the pipe of peace together, he was speaking with prophetic wisdom that has found its proof in the situation that exists in India today.

India and Great Britain staged a meeting, entirely at the suggestion of Great Britain, a great many years ago. India hadn't issued an invitation to go at home and she let Great Britain understand that she wasn't receiving. Nevertheless, India accepted the presents that her visitor brought.

India recognizes the gifts which Great Britain brought her. She does not overlook them. But she believes that she could manage better alone. She insists that the total home rule and independence which she craves, would bring about a restoration of the days when she grew her own food and accomplished her labor in her homes and village shops.

True to that human nature which is the same the world over, although the East is East and West is West, India has forgotten the pestilence and hunger of the days before Great Britain came. She believes that she used to live in a Golden Age. Just what would happen if she were left alone would be an interesting experiment.

Would India discover that when the old order has given place to the new it is not possible to live the past again? Or would she slip back to the former era since backward progress is always easier than forward? And would she be happier?

These are things which we do not know. The India-Great Britain controversy presents an interesting study for the rest of the world which watches a wizened, brown-skinned old man lead his followers on a backward crusade, or may be a forward one for them.

The basis of the trouble very probably is found in neither country. Kipling explained it. "East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet."

MOTORISTS AND FREIGHT TRAINS

A New Jersey motorist named Ludwig Lanther was driving along a highway the other day when he came to a grade crossing, blocked by a lengthy freight train which had stopped there and apparently had no intention of moving on again. Mr. Lanther stood it for quite a while. Then he got out and uncoupled two of the cars. Presently the train started up, slowly. Because it had been uncoupled an opening appeared, and Mr. Lanther sped through it and went on his way.

Now the gentleman is being held on charges of violating a state law relating to freight trains; but he protests that what he did was justified, and he'll probably get the sympathy of a great many motorists. Any driver who has had to fret and fume by a grade crossing while some deliberate freight train camped in front of him will feel a glow of fellow-feeling for this Jerseyite who took matters into his own hands.

HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION—BRAIN FOOD

There is a popular belief that certain foods, notably fish, are brain foods, and it is thought that the free use of such foods will, in some way, improve the brain tissue and so increase the mental ability.

There is no evidence that any particular food, such as fish, or that the use of foods containing any special constituent, such as phosphorus, affects, in any way, the mental development of the human being.

It must be remembered that all parts of the body are interdependent. The proper nutrition of one part implies proper nutrition of all other parts.

If the diet is deficient in one or another essential, the whole body suffers, although some part or tissue may show the ill effects sooner than others.

It is important that the brain be properly nourished. This cannot happen if the blood supply is interfered with. If the heart is not pumping properly, if the blood cells are abnormal, if the blood is not getting rid of the waste material it picks up from the tissues—if one or more such abnormal conditions occur, the brain tissue suffers, together with all the other tissues which go to make up the body.

In order to have the tissues of the body healthy, we must live a hygienic life. We must eat the proper foods and secure fresh air and sunshine, we must rest and play, and live what is described as a hygienic life. A hygienic life is a well-rounded existence wherein sufficient attention is given to all the needs of the body. In such an existence, the individual does not over-do one thing and neglect another, but balances all the needs, giving to each a reasonable amount of attention.

We are not all born equal in a sense that we all have the same physical and mental capacities. We vary a great deal, and what we should strive for is to develop, to the full, the capacities with which we are born. If we are in a condition of health, then we have achieved our aim.

In seeking to secure this development, we find that the hygienic life plays a considerable part. We cannot increase our brain capacity by eating any particular food, but we can help our brain tissue to live in a condition of health by paying attention to the general health needs of the body.

STOP—LOOK—LISTEN

In an English illustrated paper there appeared a picture of a roadside ambulance station with First Aid workers in charge, and business-like nurses in uniform. It was at a corner of one of the busiest roads in the world—the much travelled road to Epsom on Derby Day. Sensing the need, the British health authorities prepared to meet it in the effective British manner.

One would wish that every Albertan would take note of the following figures and determine that they will be reduced, and that he and his, will have a hand in helping to do so.

In 1922 seventy-one people in this province met their death in auto accidents, and in the previous year Alberta was the third of all the provinces in the death rate from autos. Last year she was in the fifth place. Other accidents in the city of Edmonton took toll of human life as follows: five fatal accidents in 1926, seven in 1927, eight in 1928 and ten in 1929. Going up, in no uncertain measure, every year, until we shall be having the unenviable record of the United States, where the rate was 23 per 100,000 of the population.

Schools and homes and churches must all unite in the efforts to make life of supreme value. Children must be protected from their own impetuosity, and taught to take time to consider the grave issues—death itself or a maimed body during life. One of the interesting feature exhibits at the Red Cross Health Booth at the Alberta Fairs this year, will be a model of a level-crossing accident where the race was not to the swift, and the supreme price was paid. It is well worthy of the attention of every visitor to the Fairs, and is entitled "Stop, Look, and Listen."

Truss Expert Coming

Demonstrate the Famous Rice Method Free to Callers At Hotel

If you are ruptured, your big opportunity has now arrived. If you want to be free from the slavery of gouging, chafing trusses that make life a burden and misery, then HERE and NOW is the time to act.

You have, no doubt, heard of and read much about this famous Rice Rupture Method and the wonderful results which thousands have reported from it. Now, you have the chance to find out all about it—to have it personally applied to your own rupture and learn just what it can and will do in YOUR OWN case. Just call at the hotel and this expert will give you his personal attention, best advice and complete demonstration entirely free.

Are you tired of that binding, hampering, uncomfortable old truss? Would you like to be done with truss wearing forever? Then investigate this Rice Method and learn the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Remember it is different from everything else and is accomplishing wonderful results where all other treatments have failed. It is modern, up-to-the-minute, abreast of the latest scientific developments. Don't let this great opportunity get away from you. Your call on the Truss Expert is sure to prove one of the best things you ever did. He will be there only two days then your opportunity will be gone. Remember, you do not spend a penny unless, after having a complete demonstration, you decide this is the Method for you and you—you alone—are the sole judge of that.

Call any time from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., or 7 to 9 evenings. Simply ask at the hotel desk for the Rice Representative and he will do the rest.

Mrs. R. F. Smith enjoys horticulture and everyone who has seen her garden lately is complimenting her upon its beauties. One of the finest displays of roses, as well as an orderly arrangement of most of the garden flowers that could be named could be seen lately in the Smith enclosure. Mrs. Smith's genius has made provision for a constant flowering of different species of plants, and she has surely an evidence of the garden which "is a lovely spot."

WEDDING BELLS

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday morning, July 7th, in the rectory of St. Augustine's Church, Granum, the Rev. Father Hughes officiating, when Mary Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Swenson, became the bride of Daniel A. Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Boyle.

The bride was beautifully gowned in flowered chiffon in blue tones with hat to match. She carried a lovely bouquet of butterfly roses and sweet peas.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Bert Kellicut, as matron of honor, who chose for the occasion a smart dress of chiffon with hat to match.

The groom was supported by Mr. Howard Sandgathe, of Calgary.

After the ceremony the guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kellicut where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served.

The happy couple left amid showers of rice and confetti to spend their honeymoon at Banff and Lake Louise.

Place Your Twine Order Now

Your order for binder twine, if placed now, will greatly help us to give you better service. Come in and tell us how much twine you will need. Figure your order on the number of acres you expect to harvest, estimating that it will take about 2 1/2 pounds of twine per acre.

This will enable us to get your order in to the Harvester Company early, and will protect you in case we should order short of the local demand.

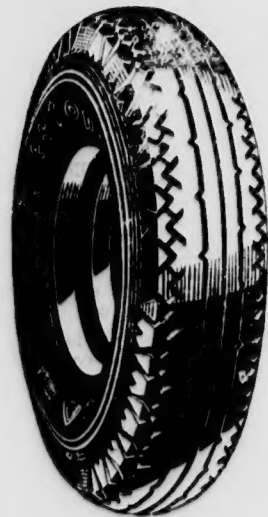

Also, if we have the binder twine business settled early, we will be able to give you better and faster emergency machine repair service at the busy season if you need it in a hurry. Help yourself to better service by ordering your twine now!
